HIS

S P E E C H

TO BOTH

Houses of Parliament,

AT

D U B L I N:

ON

Thursday the 5th Day of February, 1789.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

WITH the deepest Concern I find myself obliged on opening the present Session of Parliament to communicate to you the painful Information that His Majesty has been for some Time afflicted by a severe Malady, in Consequence of which He has not honored me with His Commands upon the Measures to be recommended to His Parliament.

I HAVE

I HAVE directed such Documents as I have received respecting His Majesty's Health to be laid before you; And I shall also communicate to you, so soon as I shall be enabled, such further Information as may assist your Deliberations on that melancholy Subject.

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS,

DEEMING it at all Times my indispensable Duty to call your Attention to the Security of the Public Credit and to the Maintenance of the Civil and Military Establishments, I have ordered the Public Accounts to be laid before you.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

IT is unnecessary for me to express to you my earnest Wishes for the Welfare and Prosperity of Ireland, which in every Situation I shall always be anxious to promote; Nor need I declare my Confidence in that affectionate Attachment to His Majesty, and in that zealous Concern for the united Interests of both Kingdoms which have manifested themselves in all your Proceedings.
